New Head of ABB Printing

Baden, Switzerland, January 6, 2016 – ABB, one of the leading suppliers of automation solutions for the newspaper industry, has announced a change in its management. Damian Staedeli has been appointed Head of ABB Printing with effect from January 1 of this year.

Damian Staedeli is well known within the newspaper production industry. He has been with ABB Printing for over 20 years, working primarily in the fields of service and sales. In both fields his deep know-how was greatly appreciated by ABB's customers and will be a major asset in his new role.

He succeeds Markus Greiner, who is taking up a new challenge outside ABB Printing. ABB thanks Markus Greiner for his enormous efforts and dedication to ABB Printing over many years and wishes him every success in future.

Mr. Staedeli looks forward to the challenges of his new role. "We have tuned our organization to increase our competitiveness and to further emphasize our commitment to long-term support of our customers", says Staedeli. "We have a great team in Switzerland and across the world and are well equipped to handle whatever challenges come our way."
