

Making yourself heard

- Think of as many synonyms and definitions as possible for the word "Freedom."
- Look in your newspaper for one or more examples of those terms.
- Create a comic strip about a character who is a journalist showing how he / she covers an assignment which is of national importance (political, social, environmental, etc.).
- Find photos on press freedom or freedom of expression in the newspaper (if you cannot find any, look on the Internet). Describe why you chose them.
- Pick a Press Freedom Day ad at www.worldpressfreedomday.org and explain what it means.
- What is the connection between the quotation balloon made of barbed wire (above) and freedom of expression and press freedom?
- Fill the text balloon with what you would like to say about press freedom.
- Send it to this newspaper addressed to "WHAT I HAVE TO SAY."

Journalists in the Firing Line
3 May