Introduction

The demand for power is ever increasing. Organisations foresee huge potential in saving energy by migrating to energy efficient technologies which gives opportunity to recalculate the power demand irrespective of the sectors. Printing industry has a huge opportunity for energy consumption.

This workshop will focus on the importance of energy management in a printing plant and areas where energy savings can be achieved. The scope of energy consumption will be covered in parts like Transformer, Main unit motors, Blowers & pumps, Chillers, Air conditioners etc.

The workshop will also discuss about monitoring energy consumption, benchmarking with industry-wide standards and setting target for efficient energy usage.

Note: The program is also offered as a in-house workshop..
