Introduction

The International Newspaper Color Quality Club (INCQC) is the only global competition that judges newspaper color quality and is the quality benchmark for the industry. Participation for membership in the Color Quality Club is open to all newspapers, independent of the production processes or types of paper that are used.

Winning a Colour Quality Club membership has several benefits. It can motivate your employees by setting clear measurable targets and improve the quality awareness of your workforce. It is also a platform to demonstrate your conformance with proven worldwide standards. The Color Quality Club Membership can also be used to promote your print plant and products in the market.

Workshop Leader

Anand Srinivasan is the project manager of INCQC. He is also responsible for the activities at WAN-IFRA Research and Material Testing Centre, Chennai, which offers newsprint and newsink testing, print quality evaluation and research on print related subjects.

In the last six years with WAN-IFRA, he has published several research reports on color quality and materials. His areas of expertise are colour management, quality control and measurement tools, print process standardisation, newsprint and newsink standardisation, environmental management and 3-D printing.

Excerpt from the General Terms and Conditions for WAN-IFRA Public Training Events

2. Registration

2.1 Registration can be submitted in writing to WAN-IFRA by mail, fax or e-mail. For the participant, the registration constitutes a binding offer for the conclusion of a contract for participation in the event described in the registration. This offer is subject to acceptance by WAN-IFRA. This is signalled by WAN-IFRA by confirmation to the participant that he has been accepted for participation in the event concerned.

2.3 In order to ensure optimum training conditions, the number of participants is limited. Registrations will be processed in the sequence of reception.

3. Performance and Change of Performance

3.4 WAN-IFRA can cancel or postpone events in case of too few participants (at latest two weeks before the start of the event) or cancellation of a speaker or other circumstances for which it is not responsible. In such cases, WAN-IFRA is relieved of the obligation to hold the event and shall reimburse participants any fees already paid.

4. Conditions of Payment

4.2 The participation fee becomes due upon receipt of the invoice.

5. Cancellation and No Show

5.3 The participant can cancel free of charge up to 14 calendar days before the event begins.

5.4 If the participant cancels between the 14th and seventh calendar day before the event begins, WAN-IFRA will charge 50% of the participation fee as a cancellation fee. If the participant cancels later than seven days before the event begins, or fails to attend or does attend only a part of the training event, then the regular participation fee will be charged.

5.5 If a participant cannot personally attend an event for which he has a firm booking, he has the possibility to name a substitute. WAN-IFRA must be notified of this in writing, stating the name and address of the substituting person.

6. Liability

6.5 In case of withdrawal from the contract or cancellation of the event by WAN-IFRA, no reimbursement of costs for booking the travel or accommodation will be afforded.
